Foreword

The students of Spring Arbor Junior College present this Echo as the open doorway through which you may enter and share memories of work and worship, of friendship and fellowship.

As you relive these scenes, may their inspiration so permeate the texture of your life that the influence of "The School of the Open Door" will cause you to enter other open doors into lives of usefulness for the One who is THE DOOR.

"For a great door and effectual is opened unto me." I Corinthians 16:9

Dedication

To Mr. Kingsley . . .

whose sober humor and his understanding mind make his friendship and council much desired. His true, unfaltering spirit and his tender heart are just two of his highest qualities. To Mr. Kingsley, who deserves our highest tribute, we lovingly dedicate our 1953 ECHO.

Campus Views

In Memoriam

Last spring our doors closed behind one of the most faithful and loved students our campus has ever known. During the summer Clair Butcher passed through a greater heavenly door into an eternal home. It is with loving memory we recall his friendly smile, his cheerful willingness to do his part, and his faithful Christian life. We, as his friends, endeavor with no bitterness to take up his tasks and carry on some of the things he would have done. We all feel that we are better for having known such a person.

Our President

To The Members of the Graduating Class, Spring Arbor Junior College, 1953
My Dear Friends:

Yours is the third class to have been graduated by Spring Arbor Junior College since mid-century. Its members have had varying experience in the past even as they have varying hopes for the future and varying joys in the present; but you have one common bond; you are all the children of Spring Arbor Junior College. You all love your Alma Mater and owe her eternal gratitude.

You have seen and will participate in epochal events. You and I must pray and believe that these troublesome times are but the prelude to a better era for mankind.

You are graduating from Spring Arbor Junior College in a year which has been, in many respects, the greatest year of its history. In the period that has elapsed between your matriculation and your graduation, you have seen as much growth take place in the College as your friends have seen take place in you.

May your college give you increasing reasons for true devotion and may you give the college real cause for pride and satisfaction in you.

Your friend,
Charlie D. Moon

Floyd McCallum, Th. B., M. A.
Dean-Registrar

He lives our Christian ideals before us every day. No wonder we trust his good judgment.

Administration

Esther Lee Maddox, A. B.

Dean of Women, English, Speech
The more we know her, the better we like her. Her helpful guidance is unprejudiced and friendly.

G. Edgar Whiteman, M. A.

Dean of Men, Sociology
A man with a vision and the ability to realize his vision. When we think of Dean Whiteman we think of his philosophy based on love, his keen sense of humor and inspirational talks.

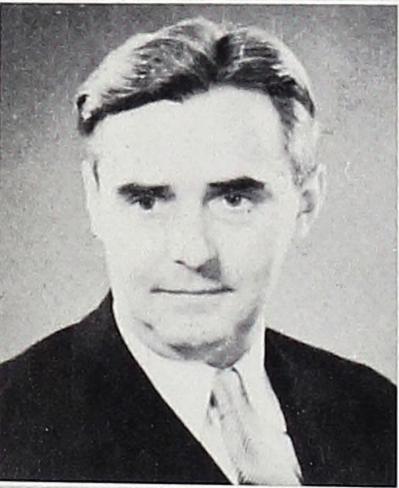

Kenneth Beardslee, B. S., M. S.
Commerce, Physical Ed.
If you're looking for an upright example, frank advice, a faithful friend or a good coach -- here's Mr. Beardslee.

Mabel Harkcom, A. M.
Science, Art
From her we learn the science of living a Christian life and the art of being a true friend.

Shirley John, B. A.
English, Social Science
She fairly sparkles! A combination of verve to get things done and steady dependability.

Charles Kingsley, A. B.
Director of Public Relations
Everyone knows and likes Mr. Kingsley.
Whether it's selling Spring Arbor to the territory or just giving one of his informal chapel talks, we think he's tops.

Hans Leitner, Ph. D.
German, Greek Philosophy
We always look for his cheery smile and quick nod, and he never fails us.

Vera Linsey, M. A.
Voice, Music Theory, Physical Ed.
Her best is never too good for anything she does. She's peppy, sincere, and a trustworthy friend. We love her!

LeRoy M. Lowell, A. M., Litt. D.
Director of Chapel Crusade, Religion
He's a master of so many things we never cease to wonder at him. We love his inspirational chapel times.

Lucy Maddox, M. A.
English, Speech
Her daily life is an inspiration to all of us. She's witty, dependability itself, and a consistent Christian.

Donald McDonald, A. M.
Mathematics, Physical Ed.
A fiery get-up-and-go spirit that helps us through many rough places. We can always depend on Mac.

Violet Morgan, M. A.
Commerce, Counseling
A mixture of deep sincerity, an understanding nature, a kind heart, a conscientious Christian life, plus a dash of lively humor -- that's Miss Morgan.

Arleta Richardson, B. S.
Library, Hygiene
God gave her a friendly smile, a willing hand, and a heart of pure gold.

Gilbert Roller, A. B.
Piano, Music Theory
A busy, cheerful musician with the love of God shining clear through.

Henry Ryckman, B. S., A. B.
Industrial Arts
A quiet, sincere nature and a consistent
Christian walk.

Edmund Snyder, A. M.
Spanish, Religion, Psychology
We can't help but like this versatile man with his dry humor, his deep knowledge of a thousand different things, and his consecrated Christian life.

Leonard Soldan, M. A.
Social Science, Religion
Always the same; calm, determined, friendly, and helpful.

Eldon Whiteman, M. S.
Science
A heart full of love and patience for everyone. His deep love of nature has changed many an outlook on God's fir-mament.

Eeva Rensberry, A. B.
Bursar
Faithful to her job and her friends; she's always the same.

John W. Zimmerman
Organ
Music is the universal language of mankind.

Maggie Buckta
Cook
A quiet, calm, friendly person who goes about her work without a grumble, and does her best to keep us happy and healthy.

Susie Fritz
Kitchen Supervisor
Her smile and word of encouragement to her workers make their tasks more pleasant.

Paul Young
Supt. of Buildings and Grounds
Pop Young has the love of God constantly, bubbling up and overflowing. We love him for his jolly nature, willingness to help, and Spirit-filled life.

Guy Priest
Maintenance
He goes about his tasks so unobtrusively, we seldom think to commend him. Yet, his faithfulness is a challenge to all of us.

The College Church

That our doors literally are open would mean nothing, if, when people enter the church, Christ, the Door, were not presented to them. The Lord Jesus, the only Saviour of mankind, is Himself the open Door.

Our church seeks to exalt Him, and to lead souls to enter into eternal life by faith through this widely open Door. Christ came that we might have life, and that we might have it more abundantly. Hence, through the preaching of His Word and by His Holy Spirit we encourage all who worship with us to receive and daily to enjoy that more abundant life -- the life of holiness, of heart purity, of perfect love.

We thank God also for our school which in every area of its activities -- academic, cultural, and recreational -- endeavors to lead the students to a knowledge of God through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

--James Hudson Taylor
College Pastor

From the editor, dashing madly about proposing and rejecting ideas, to the lowly typists pecking them out on paper, the ECHO staff never finds a dull moment. There are photographic appointments to be made, write-ups to be checked, snapshots to be collected, student directory to be compiled, pages to be laid out, and a million-and-one other things that go into making one superb yearbook. The staff has spent many an hour working to give you a yearbook to be proud of. The task now completed, we present to you the ECHO of 1953 and hope you find it the best ever.

Friday Night Activities

The College Sophomores will be found throughout the village of S. A. on a Scavenger Hunt after which they will come back to the campus where they will occupy the Rec. Room. Games and refreshments will be waiting for them.

Sports news, current news, town news -- a newsy paper is the aim of our capable ReDit Staff. They did a fine job giving us a paper every Friday evening.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council could always be found hard at work doing their very best to launch new improvements in the school program. The All-School Retreat, Brazil Crusade, and a million and one less conspicuous things were the result of the efforts of this student-chosen group and their capable prexy, Jim Chapman, not pictured here.

The library seemed to be the only quiet place to study so many times. The friendly and efficient staff, under the guidance of Miss Richardson, were always willing to do their best to help you locate just what you were looking for.

CHRISTO-VOLUNTEERS

These Christian organizations have done much to further the work of the Kingdom on our campus in a very practical way. Christo-Volunteers has had charge of prayer chains, prayer meetings, packing Christmas boxes for needy families, and has served in other ways when the opportunity arose. The Ministerial group has had charge of Monday Chapel periods and street meetings held in Jackson. We feel these organizations play a vital part in making Spring Arbor a Christ-Centered school.

MINISTERIAL

A Cappella Chorus

The 1953 Choral Crusade for Christ will ever live in the memories of the director and the forty members. The tour was from the beginning approached with a sense of the challenge of a great task to be accomplished. The aim was to visit the twenty churches and dozen high school assemblies on tour schedule with a very definite sense of mission. The Chorus with a message--a message of Salvation and a note of missionary awakening that God has a tremendous task for today's youth who are willing to respond to the closing theme of each concert service, "Here am I, Send Me."

While the Chorus was in a valuable sense representatives of Michigan's outstanding accredited Christian Junior College, in a far greater sense it was the vibrant re-echo of the age old and yet ever new commission of "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel." The 1953 Choral Crusade was dedicated to the carrying of the world's most important message into the heart of five thousand public high school youth with the daring suggestion of considering too the way of the cross. Their regular evening services in twenty eastern Michigan and Ohio communities were each entered with a prayer for an anointing that would inspire local young people to world wide vision for the Kingdom and to the aged Saint prove a renewed blessing and inspiration. Yes, from the smallest crossroad church to the large Detroit H. Y. C. Rally---from the shores of Lake Superior to the towns of Northern Ohio---may the thousand miles and ten thousand melodic notes of the 1953 Choral Crusade ever live to the Glory of God.

Vera Lindsey, Director

CRUSADE ENSEMBLE

These two musical groups received as much joy out of their music as did those who heard them. The music of the Crusade Ensemble, under the direction of Dr. Lowell, was the opening feature of each monthly Crusade Rally. The chorus presented Handel's Messiah one Sunday afternoon in December, directed by Miss Lindsey. The harmony of the music they produced was made more perfect by the harmony of purpose they held --- singing about a living Christ.

Field Service

The satisfying thrill of service comes weekly to the many members of Spring Arbor's greatest teams -- The Gospel Teams. The several singing groups travel many miles totaling annually once around the earth, participating in Youth Rallies and Sunday services in churches throughout the Michigan, Ohio and North Indiana territory of Spring Arbor. Their services are often a challenge to other youth to consider attending a Christian College. Traveling for the King has its greatest reward in the transmitting of the Gospel through the ministry of song. In addition, these groups are in many ways enriched by sharing in the worship of many groups and the hospitality of many Christian homes.

Opportunity for Christian Service is also afforded many who do not sing in choral groups by their student operation of three rural Sunday Schools in nearby Pulaski, Bath Mills and Bennett.

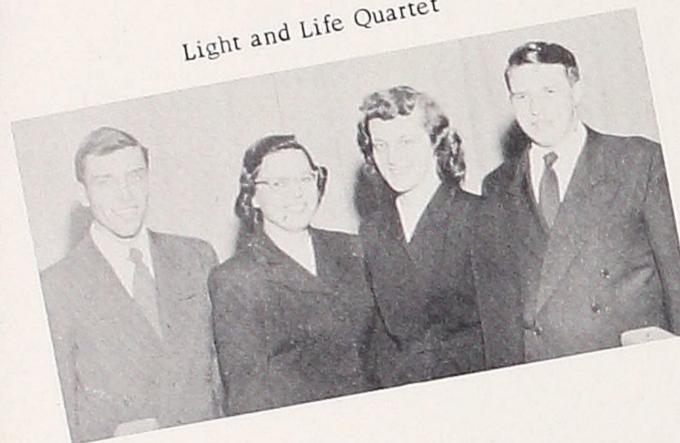

Field Service is dedicated not only to making better known the glory of a Christian School, but of actually putting into practice the great ideal of serving while we learn. "Her banner unfurled shall bless the whole world."

BRAZIL for Christ CRUSADE

The Brazil Crusade marks a new era in the history of our school. The challenge of helping to evangelize Brazil is a culmination of the activities from the first of this school year further sparked by Dr. B. H. Pearson during the fall revival series.

As a direct result the Brazil Crusade Committee, composed of both faculty and students, was organized. After tentative plans, prayer, and consultation with the General Missionary Board, Spring Arbor Junior College accepted the responsibility of underwriting the cost of desirable property for a new seminary in Brazil in order to help train native workers. Further, the Student Association president, Jim Chapman was sent as a short term missionary and our representative to aid in the promotion of the seminary, a second Spring Arbor, on a sister continent.

Jim has now joined Larry Burr, a crusading pastor, and Don and Elda Rose Bowen, all Spring Arbor alumni, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ryckman in Sao Paula, Brazil.

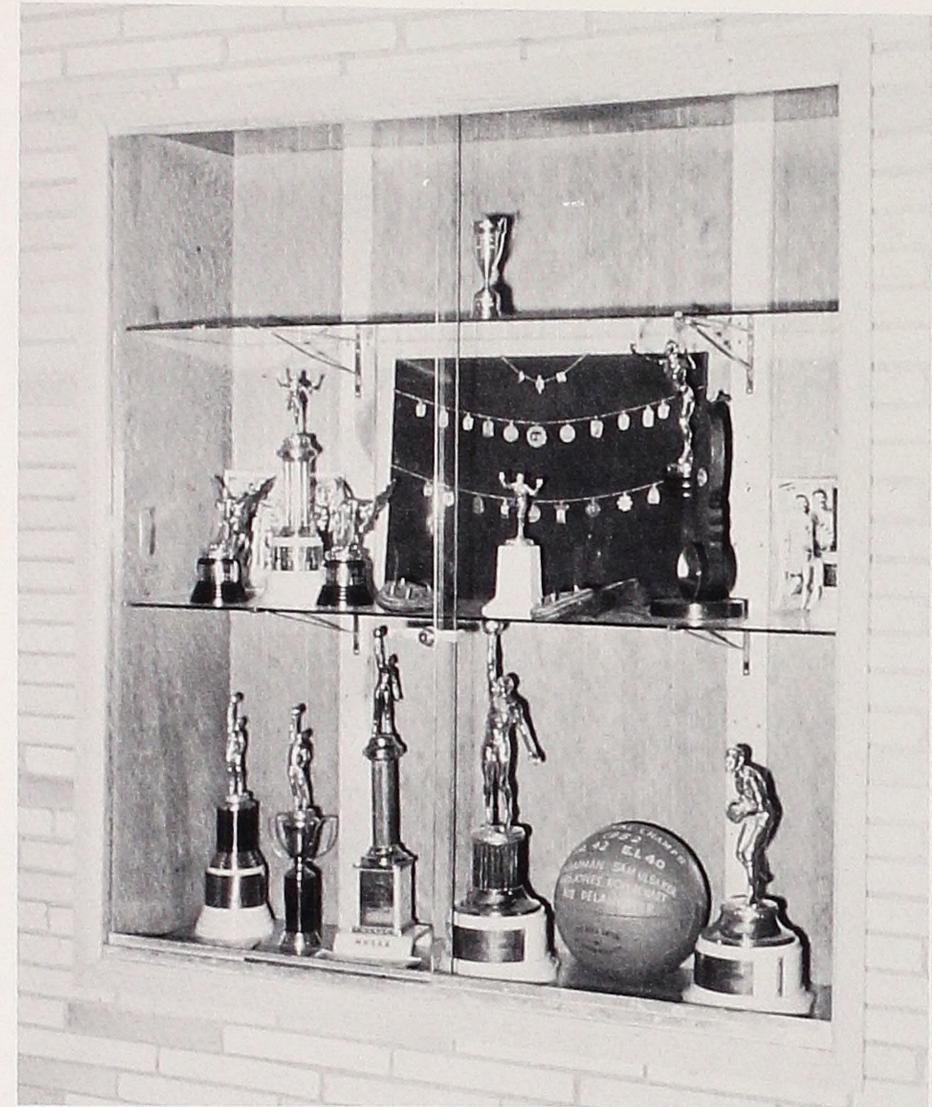

Prayer and plans are continuing for further Brazil emphasis. We have adopted as our theme song, "Here Am I, Send Me" and have caught a new vision of the meaning of the lines from our school song, "her banner unfurled shall bless the whole world."

A beauty contest? . . . Where's the egg? . . . Easter bonnet . . . Take me back to my boots and saddle . . . Here's a toast . . . Future homemaker of S. A. . . Watch the birdie . . . When I became a man . . . Just try it!

Whether its the blue and gold clad basketball player dribbling the ball down the floor, the faithful track man out for his early morning run, the peppy cheer-leaders trying to teach the student body a new yell in a pep rally, or simply a challenging game in our regular gym classes, every one who takes part in sports activities in Spring Arbor gets a lesson in the real meaning of good sportsmanship and co-operation. We not only have a good time, but we learn the importance of taking God with us into every phase of our lives. Our coaches, Miss Lindsey, Mr. Beardslee and Mr. MacDonald take an individual interest to see that we develop spiritually as well as physically. Sports in a Christian college can be fun!

The enjoyment of electric and gas service depends, much like an education, on the degree to which it is used.

Wires and mains, like brain cells and nerve centers, are full of potential energies needing but to be called upon to bring to you new realms of convenience, helpfulness and comfort.

These services are aiding in creating new standards of living, in shortening and lessening domestic labor and through the allowing of more time for relaxation, leisure and recreation, such services contribute to health, and longer and fuller lives.

These advantages, both economic and personal, are yours for but a few cents a day—one of your soundest investments.

Michigan boasts of forests and lakes;
Her beauties our hearts entwine;
But there is a spot, twill ne'er be forgot;
Far dearer than lake or pine.
Then speed the glad song and the chorus prolong,
Till the echoes reach heaven above.
Her banner unfurled shall bless the whole world --
SPRING ARBOR, the school we love.
