Foreword

Between these covers
Lie the stories
Of one of the happiest years
In the lives
Of three hundred people:
The defeats and the victories,
The work and the play,
The hard times and the enjoyable.
Enter
With the Echo Staff of 1959
Through the Golden Door
Of Reminiscence.
Like glistening sand
Melting through your fingers,
Sift the memories
Warmest to you.
As you move
Into the living past
May your enjoyment
Equal ours.

Miss Mary Ruth Crown

Music is more than a vocation to you, Miss Crown.
It is life. And the music which is your life
Is a sweet, smoothly-flowing melody that
Never changes rhythm; never sings off key.
Your life is a refrain which reaches Heaven.
Yet it touches the heart of each of us. It replaces
The weak strings and the broken. It tunes
The discordant strings, and produces harmony.
With sincere gratitude for the Melody of your Life
We dedicate to you, Miss Crown, the 1959 Echo.

Christos

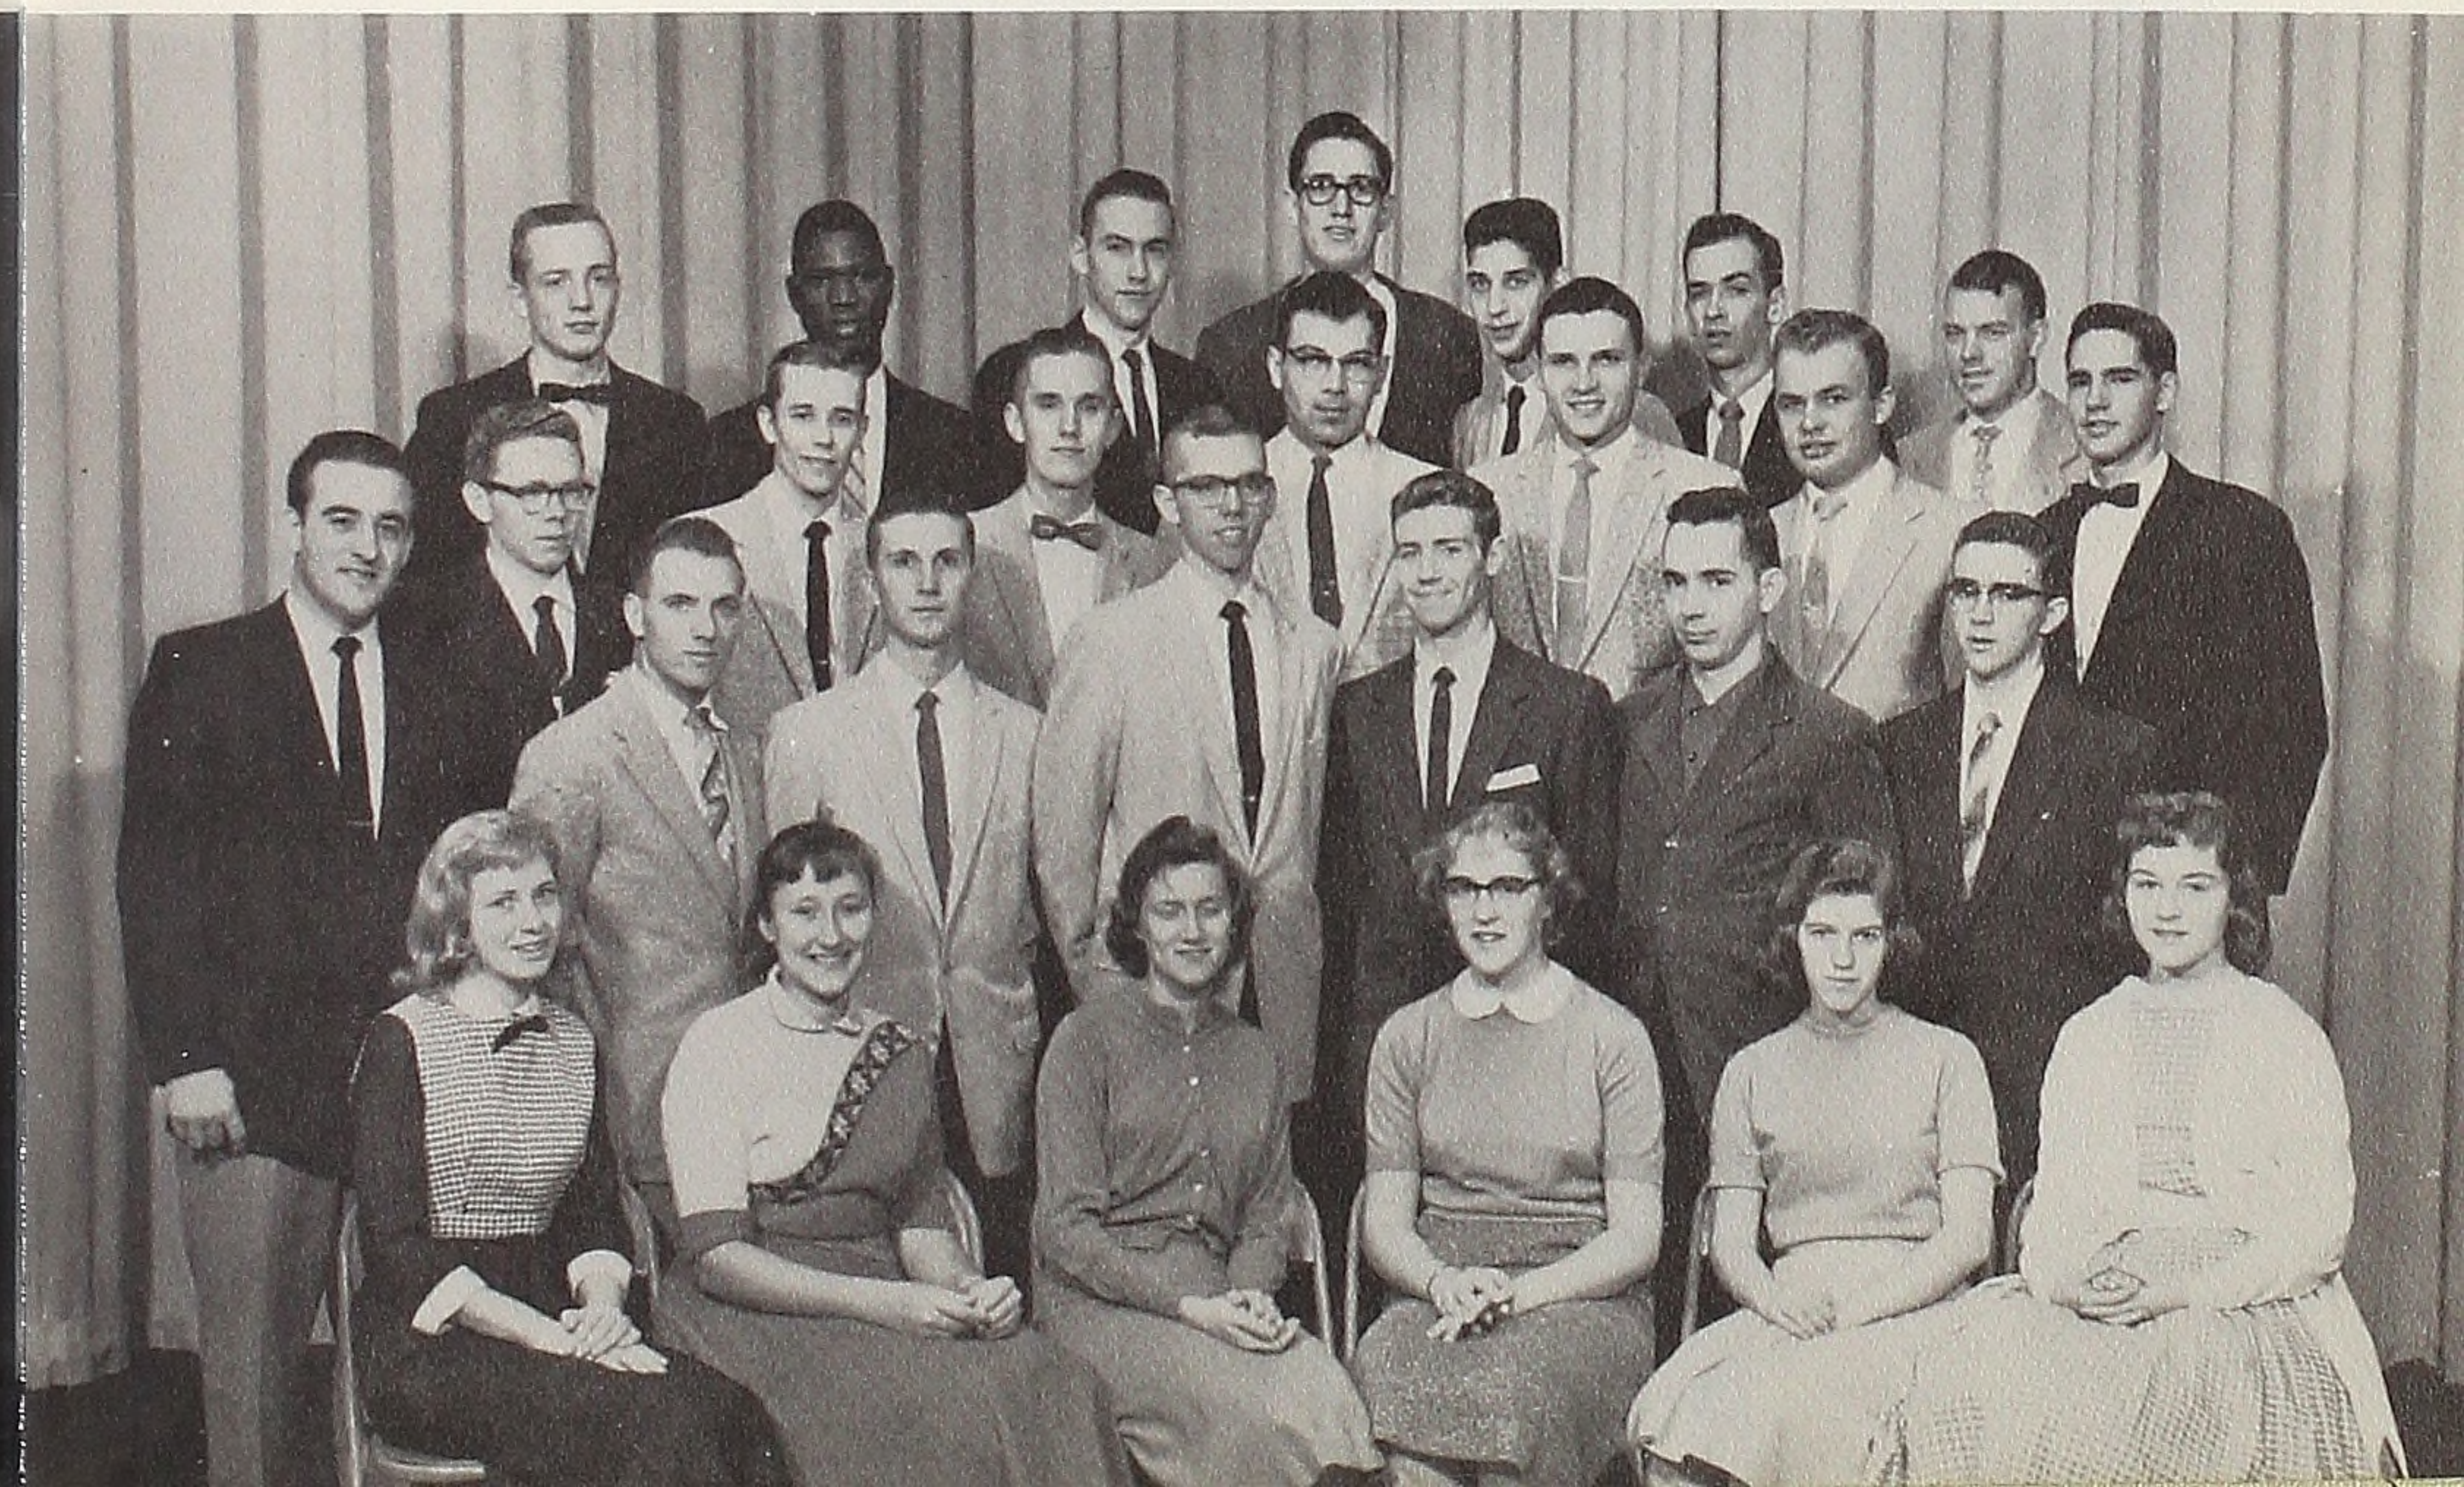

The Christos are a volunteer group of Christian young people. The main purpose of this organization is planning for the future church by studying new ideas in Sunday School and Youth programs.

This past year the Christos have presented several fine films and held panel discussions. Several members helped with the Ypsilanti Church Sunday School promotion program by Sunday afternoon calling.

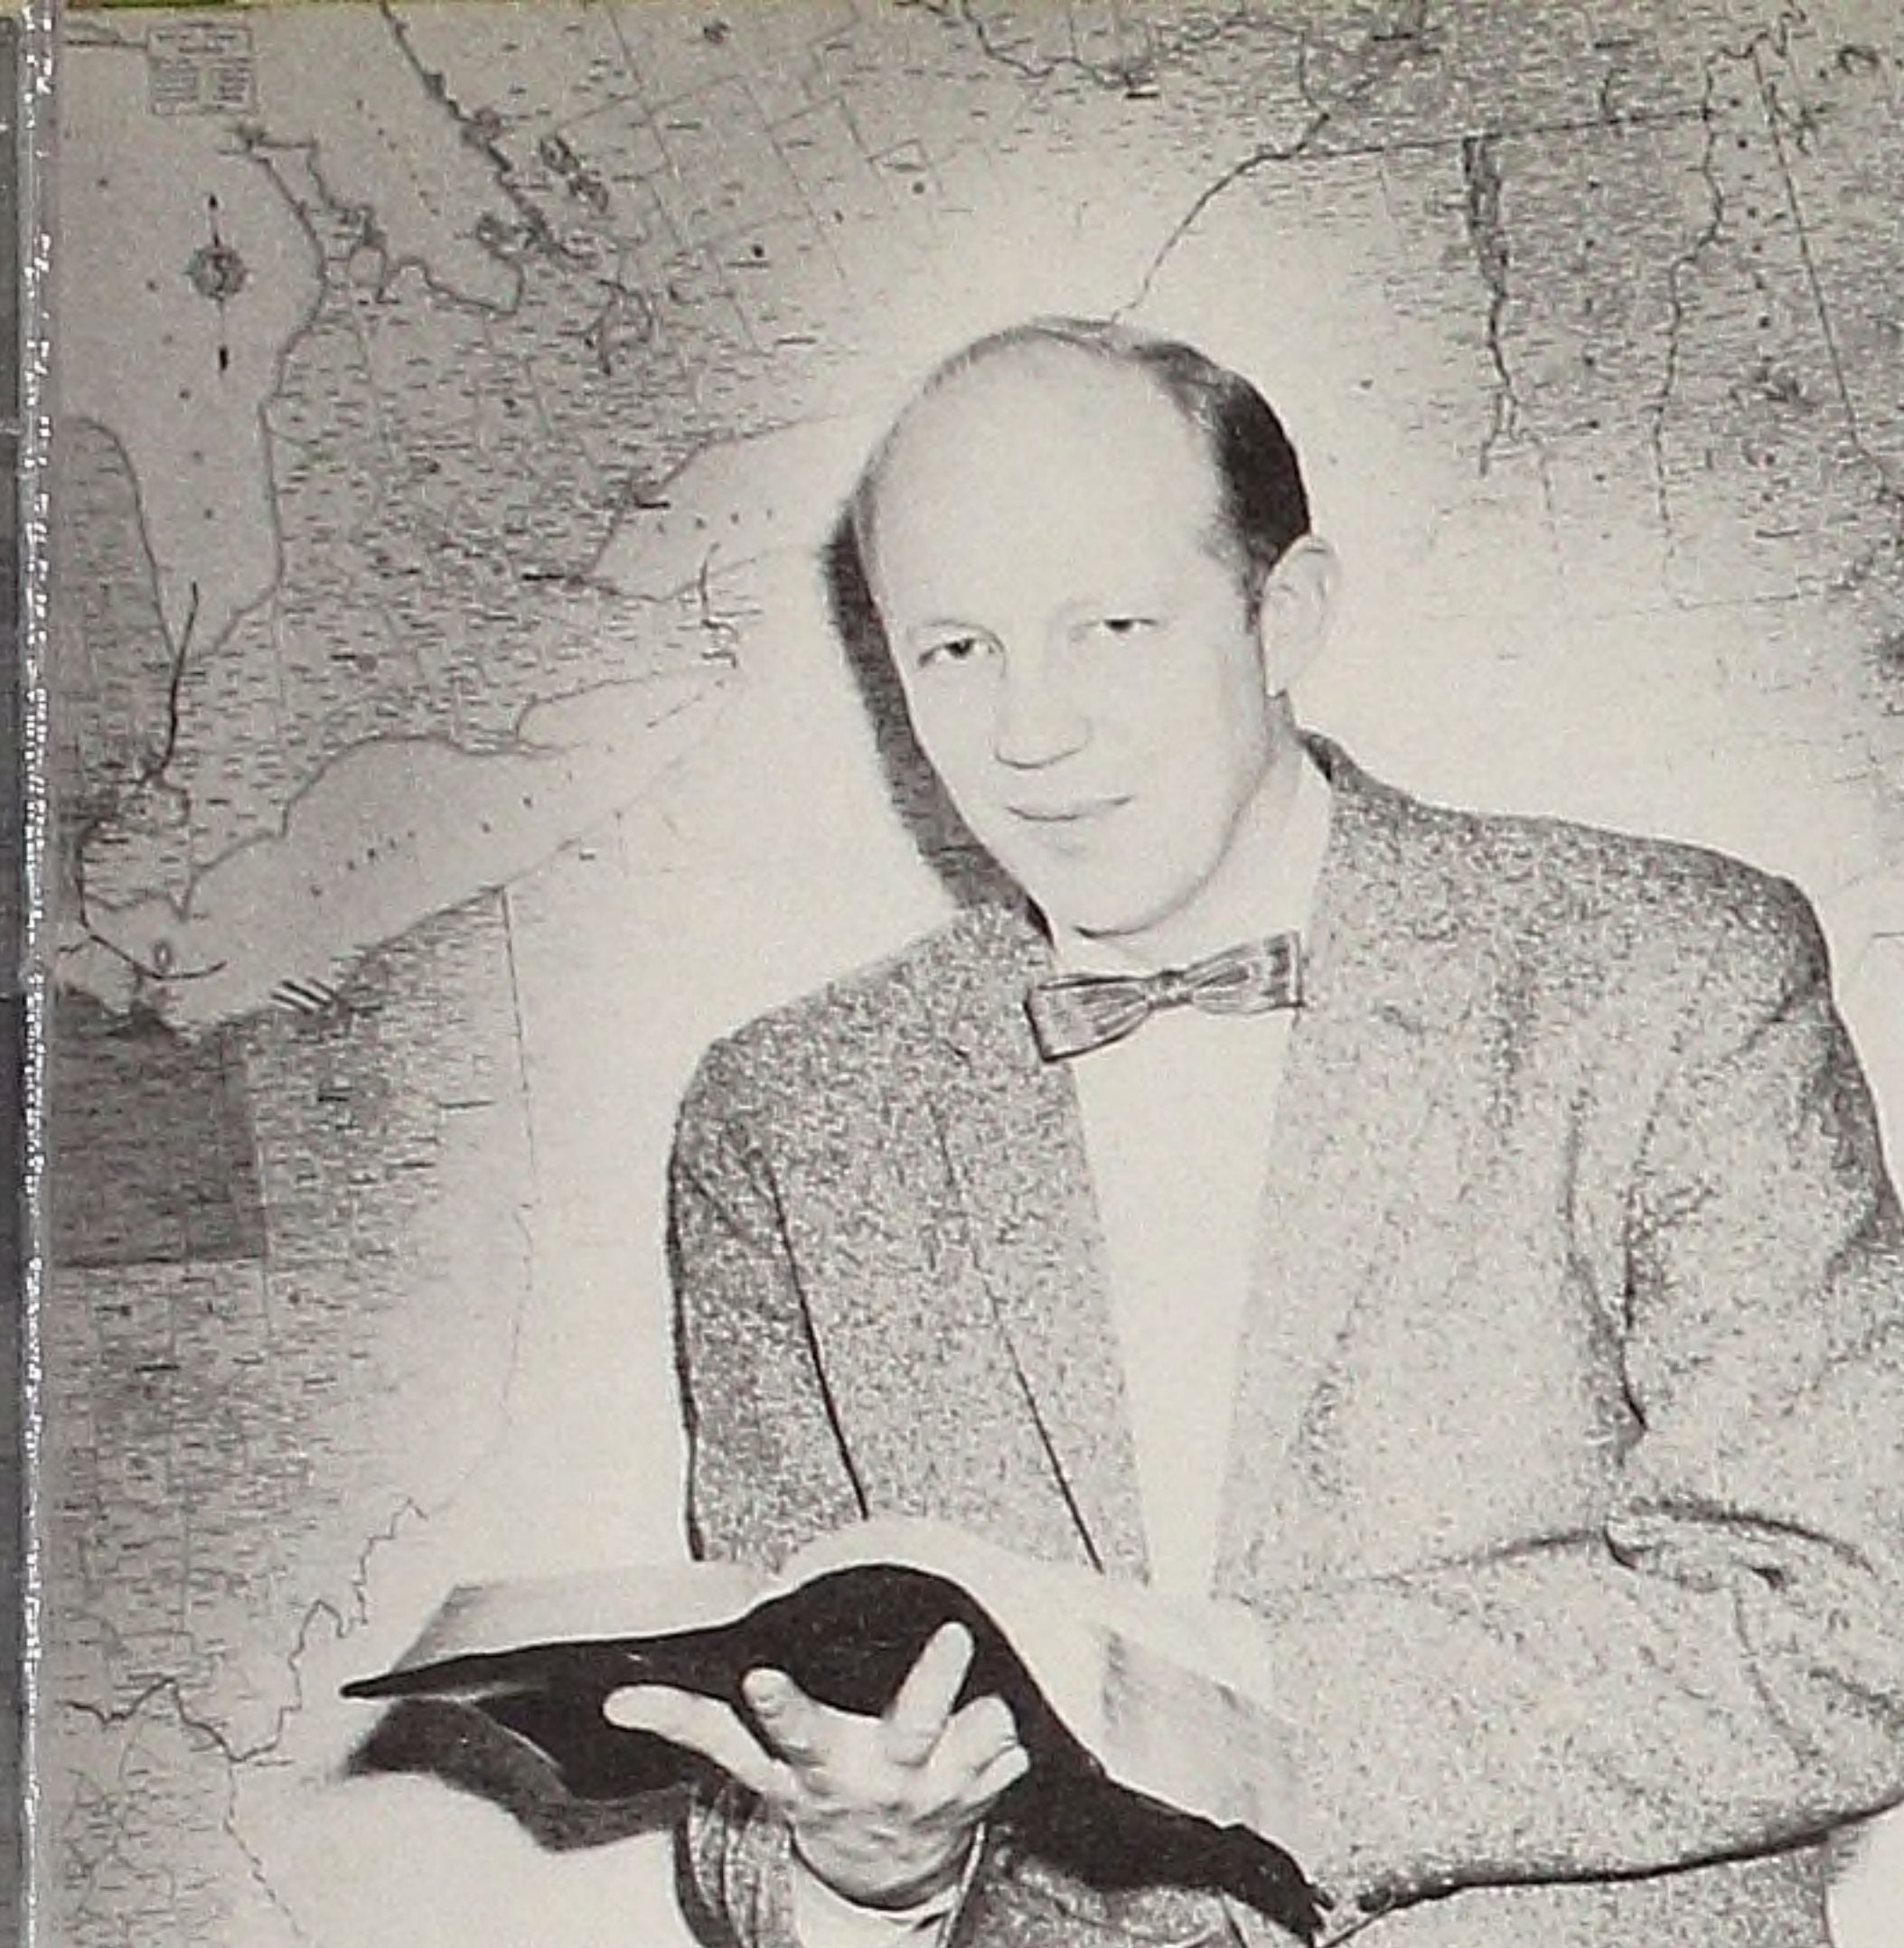

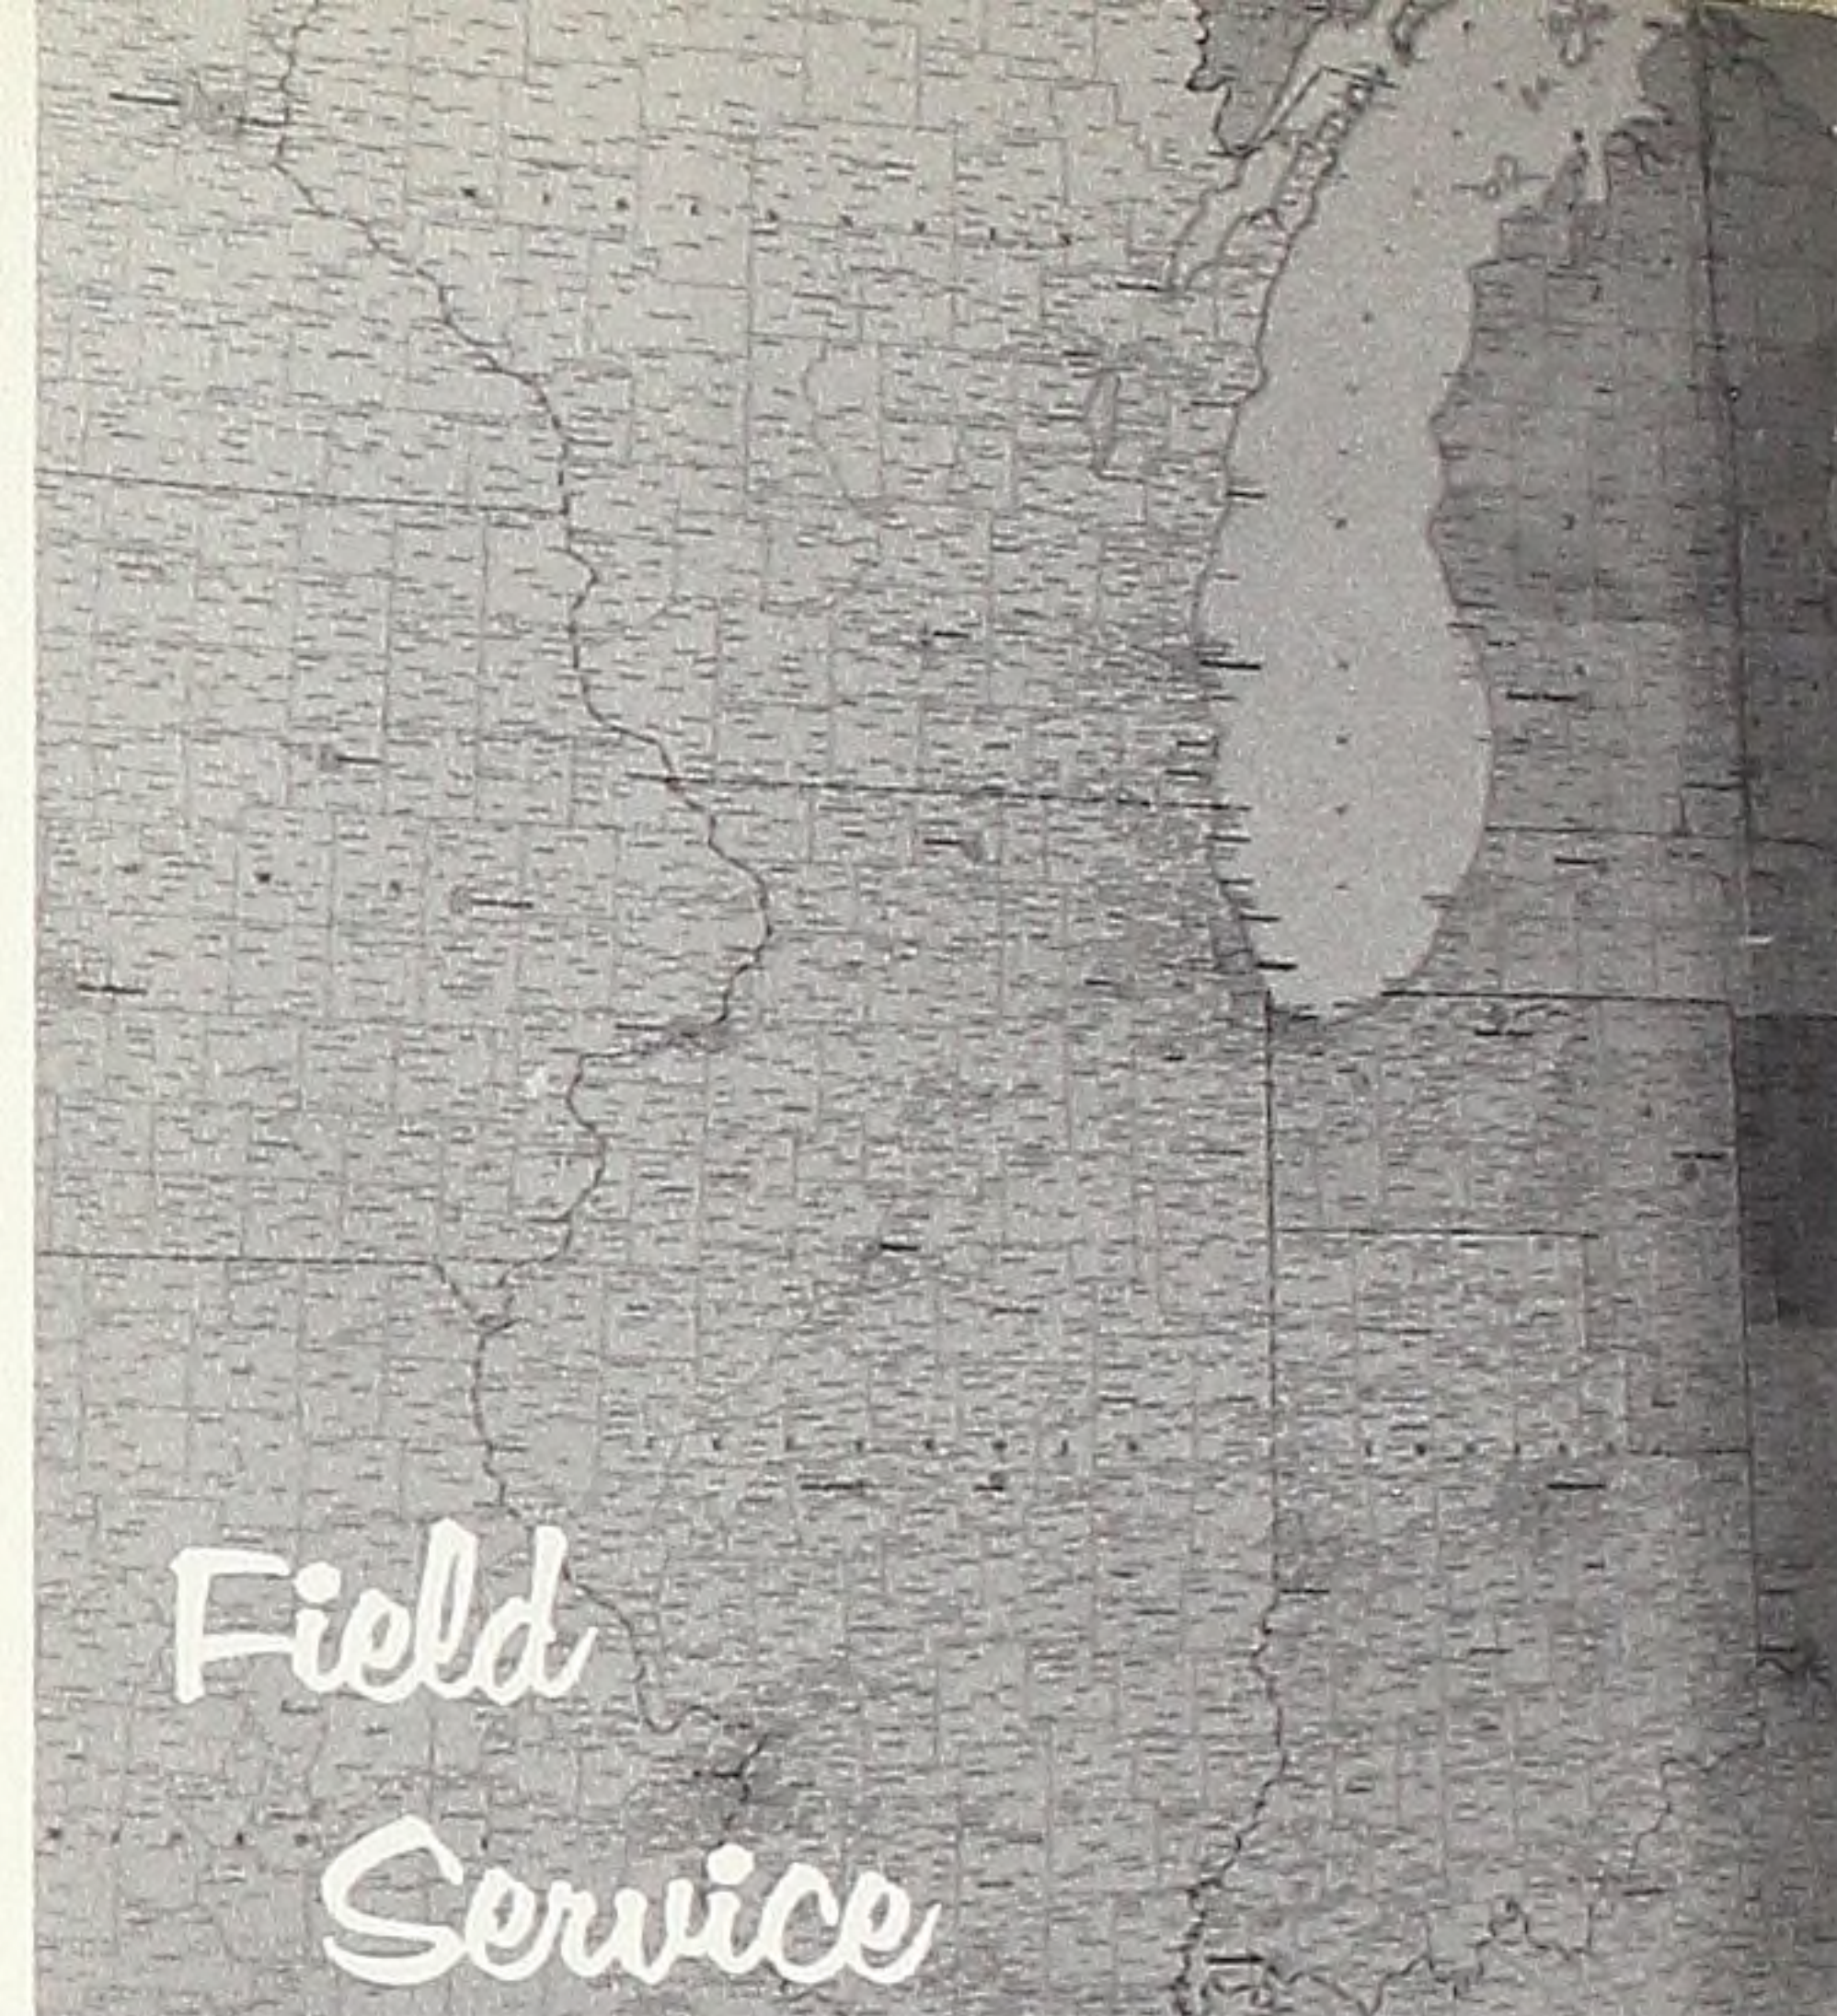

Ministerial

The Ministerial Association is an organization for prospective ministers, missionaries, and other full time Christian workers. Under the able advice of its sponsor, Mr. Mannoia, the ministerial served the surrounding community and endeavored to raise the Spirituality of our campus through many mediums this year.

"I will sing with the spirit" might well have been the prayerful determination of each of the choir members as they heralded Christ's wondrous message. Fervant joy welled in the hearts of the members as they experienced the deep-rooted satisfactions gained by singing about the Master for His glory. The A Cappella, under the capable leadership of Miss Crown, became a spiritual force on campus, and carried this spirit on tour as they gave witness, through song, to their deepened spiritual life. This eventful year made 1959 an unforgettable season.

The college cross country team continued to stand forth as a superb team of clean Christian living. They extended their national junior college record against junior colleges to 27 consecutive wins and 21 triumphs in 25 meets with senior colleges in 7 years. The consecutive junior college win streak was thereby advanced to 6 years. Certainly they extended a very admirable performance although having to settle for second place in the national regional meet.

College Cross Country

The high school cross country team for the "58" season was led by Webb and Garcia. Considering the lack of depth due to the loss of four from the "57" squad, the high school Harriers had a good season with their new coach Bill Rosenberger.

Intramural Sports

The well-organized intramural activities of S.A.J.C. and H.S. were started early in the school year with the advent of the football season.

After a series of well-played games which both participants and spectators enjoyed, the "Tom Dooleys" were crowned pigskin champions.

The basketball season again found the students eagerly participating in intramural activities, and after many hard-fought battles, the sophomore girls emerged with the best overall record.

As the ECHO goes to press, we are looking for an equally exciting softball season.

Chapel Crusade - Lyceum Series

During the year we have had many interesting lyceum programs which presented professional talent in our own chapel. Tom and Arlene Hadley presented their film, "America the Beautiful." We then enjoyed the University of Michigan Baroque Trio, consisting of harpsichord, oboe, and flute. The "Living Desert," a film by Walt Disney, was presented at another program. One of the most interesting in the lyceum series was Edwin Barron, hypnotist. We are expecting "Spy Warfare" to be presented soon. There were also Crusade Rallies during the year which presented high musical talent as well as providing an up-lifting spiritual atmosphere.

After defeating Vincennes of Indiana in the regional tourneys, the college cagers were eliminated by a sharp Flint JC quintet. The officiating was the most inferior of the season. At the end of the tourneys, the college record stood at 12 wins and 10 loses; the High School broke even with a 9-9 record including a loss to Parma Western in the district finals.

To you who have made this book a realization,

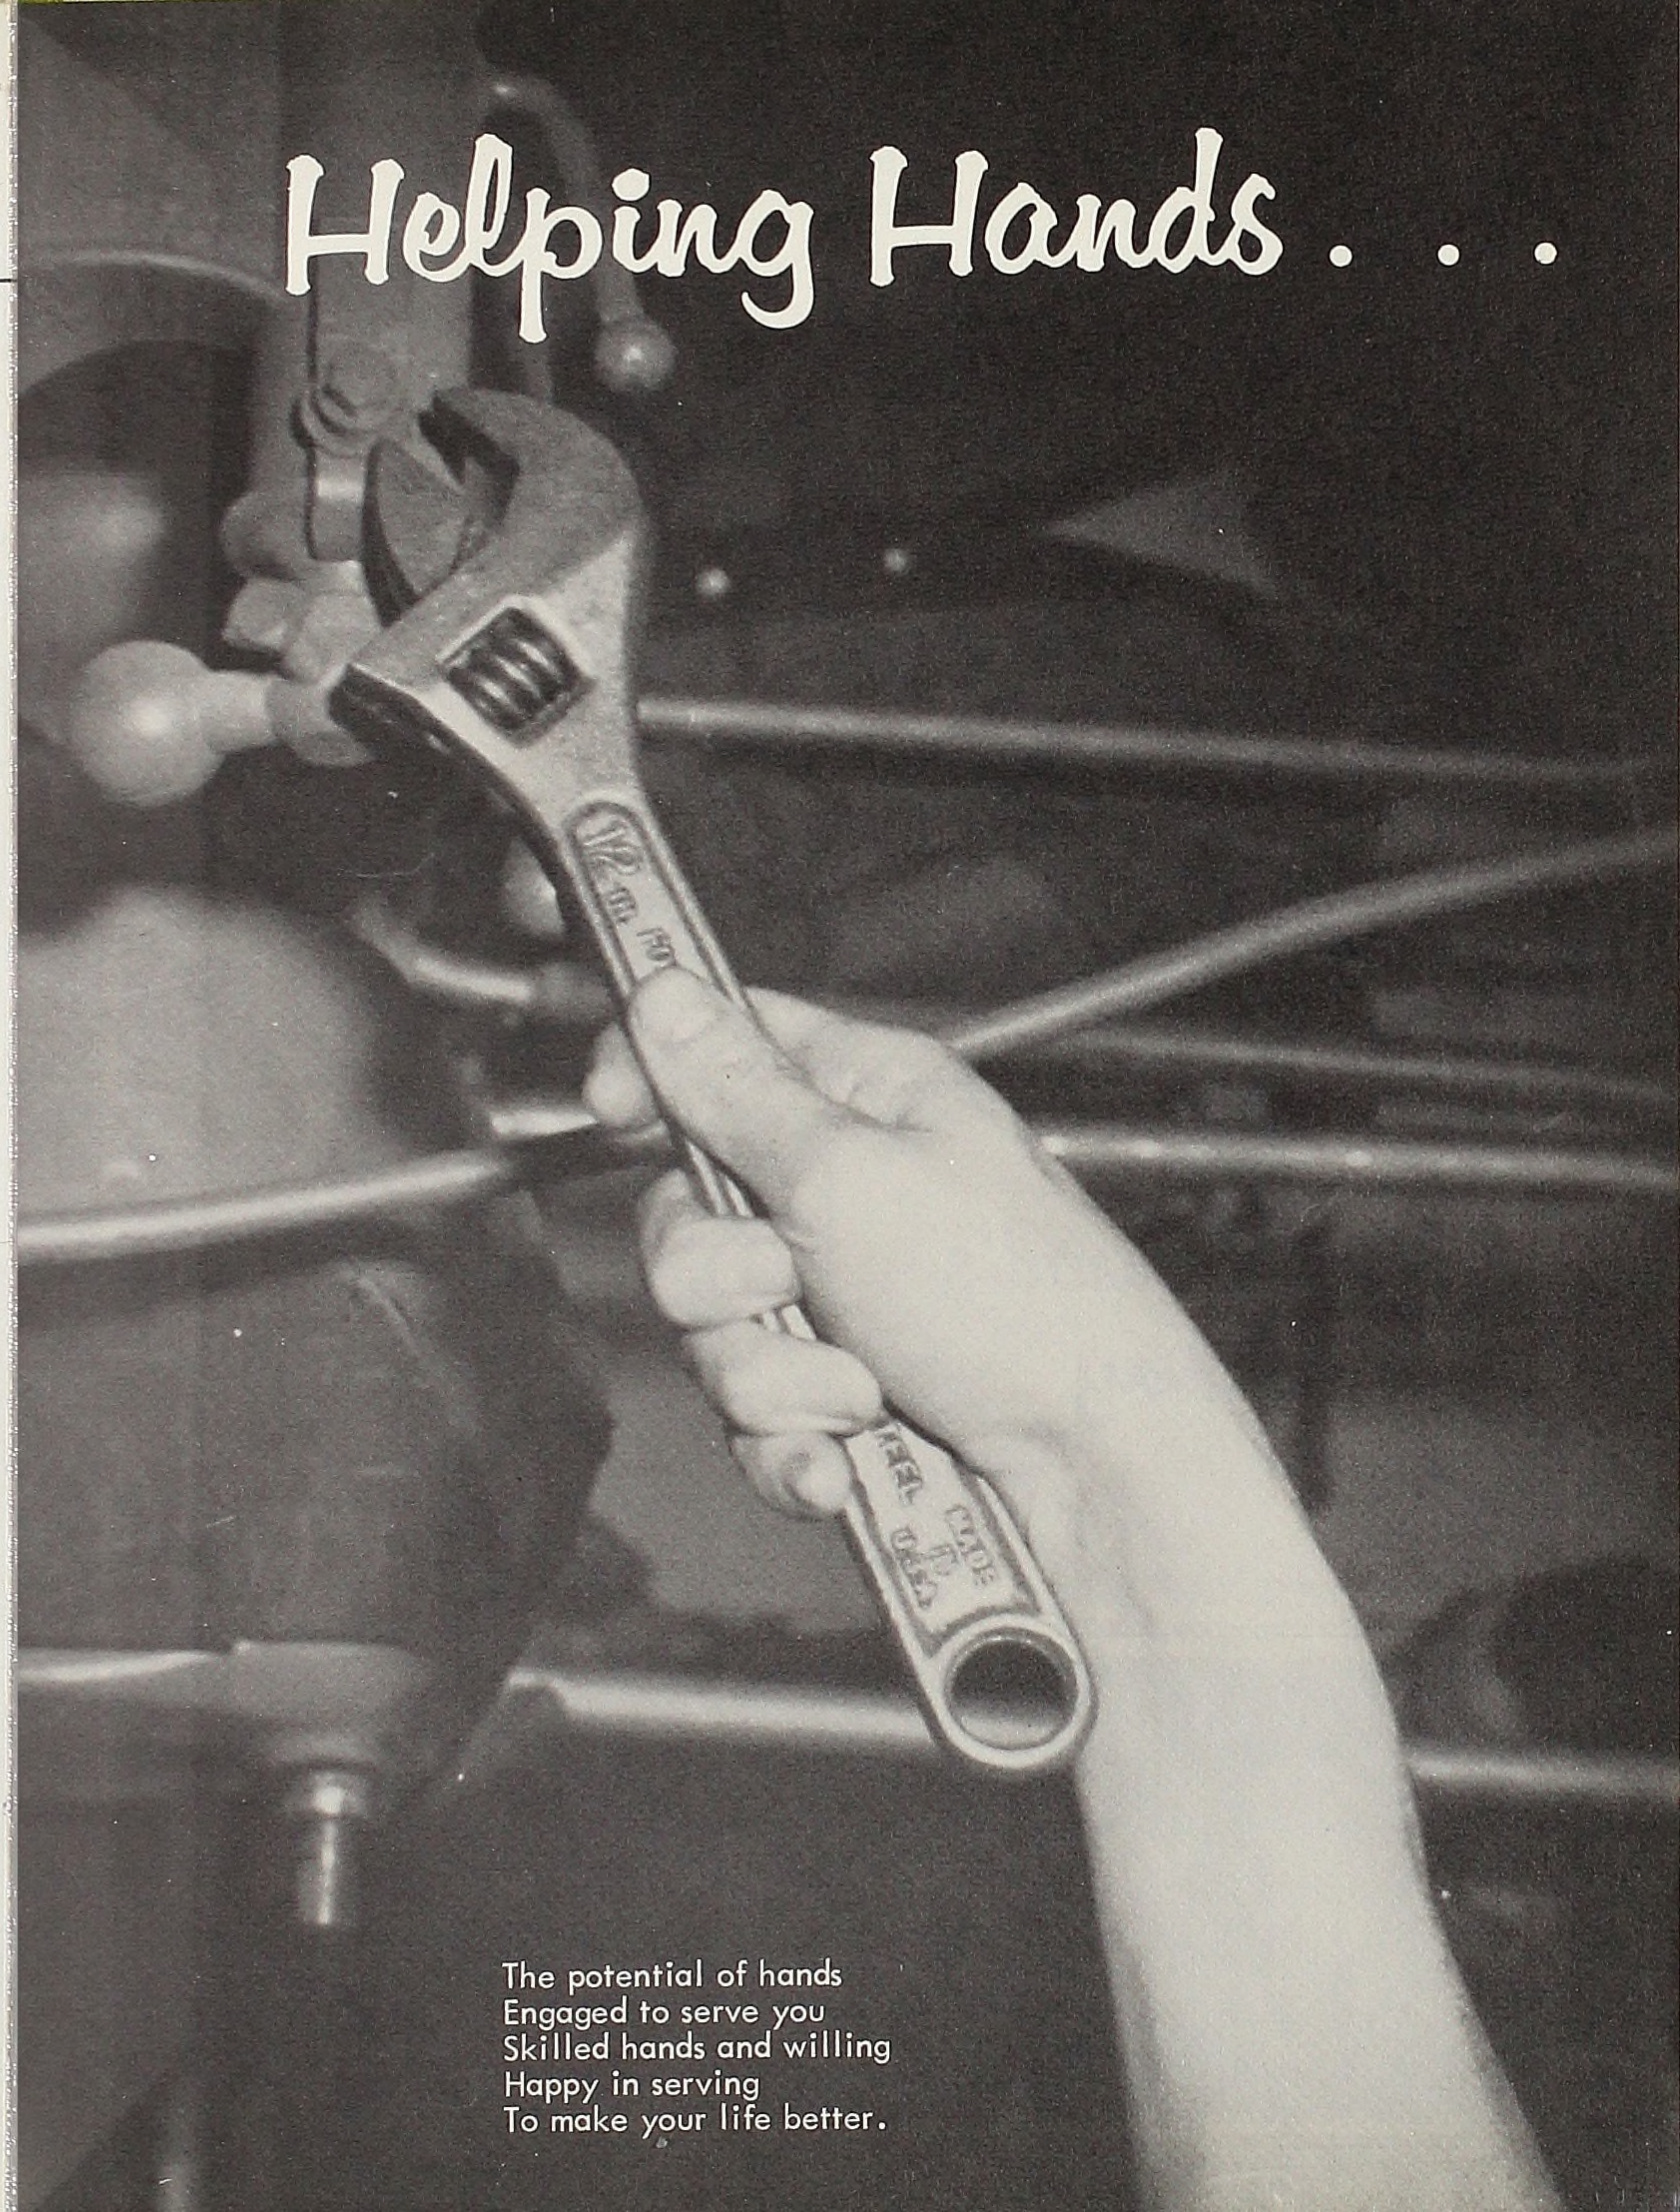

At this time we would like to thank all who have shared in the publication of this yearbook; President Smith and members of the faculty who tolerated our picture schedule and class absences and assisted us in a myriad of ways; Mr. Solden who shared his already cramped office with the yearbook staff; Wes Butcher who spent many hours beyond the call of duty snapping and developing many of the photographs; Mr. Johnson and Curt Cruft for their ready assistance; Dick Crandell for his art work; and all who assisted us in any way, whether it was running an errand or answering a question; every effort was appreciated.

Sincerely,

1959 Echo Staff

P. S. We sincerely hope that next year's staff will receive the co-operation and feel the same enjoyment and self-satisfaction that we did in producing this yearbook. Good luck.

The Secret

"What is the real good?" I asked in musing mood.

Order, said the law court; knowledge, said the school;

Truth, said the wise man; Pleasure, said the fool;

Love, said the maiden; Beauty, said the page;

Freedom, said the dreamer; Home, said the sage;

Fame, said the soldier; Equity, the seer;

Spake my heart full sadly, "The answer is not here."

Then within my bosom softly this I heard:

"Each heart holds the secret; Kindness is the word."
