

The Echo

The Echo

The Echo

Fall 2002

Meet The Editors:

Editor-in-chief: Jessie June Thomas

"So here it is. The Echo. Your Echo. I hope you like it. We tried really hard to make it fun. Enjoy the pictures. There's lots of them."

Assistant Editor: Cassandra Nicole Schanne

"I've enjoyed working on the book so much. I'm really proud of what we were able to accomplish."

And All the People We Have to Thank:

Production Editor: Xian

Layout: Cassandra Schanne & Jessie Thomas

Copy Editing: Jessie Thomas & Cassandra Schanne

Technical Information & "Go to Guy": Dave Brandt

"I danced with as many girls as I could.." -James Perry

"I was so surprized and honored to be on court. I had so much fun. What a cool way to spend my senior homecoming." - Sarah Hoover, homecoming queen, 2002

Homecoming Masquerade

"The highlight of the dinner was seeing how the talents of people in the Spring Arbor community were utilized to bring a personal touch for a memorable evening..."
-Anne Langebartels

Arbor Games

"It's always great to see guys in girl's clothing." - Nich Pollak

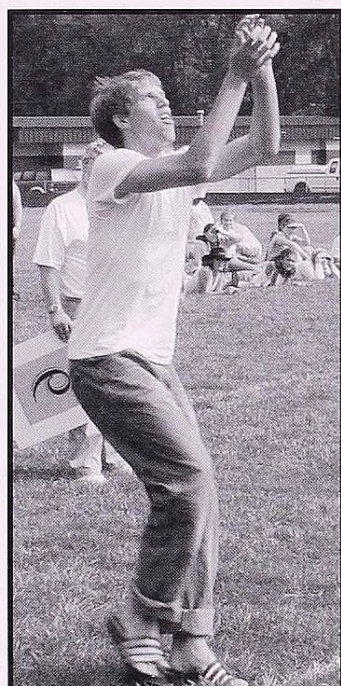

"Four words: pop chug and bat spin." - Nick Munn

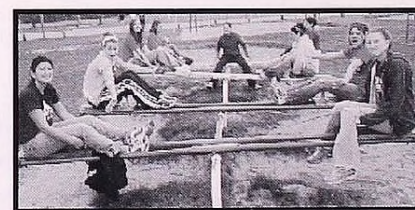

"Oh man... I almost pooped my pants. If only SAU students could appreciate such an awesome mix." -Abbott Daimler

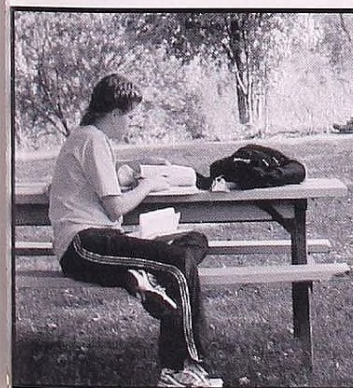

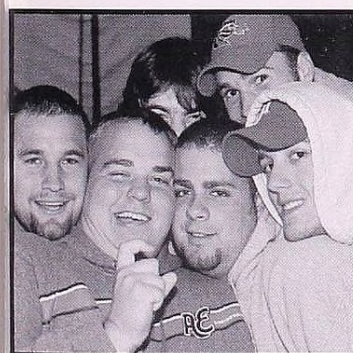

the movement

SLR

"Being baptized at SLR is one of the best things I've ever done. Being my senior year and all, I needed to make that ultimate commitment..." -Geila Rajae

"One morning I dumped a pitcher of water on my roommate while he was in the shower. He screamed like a girl." -Jon Carlisle

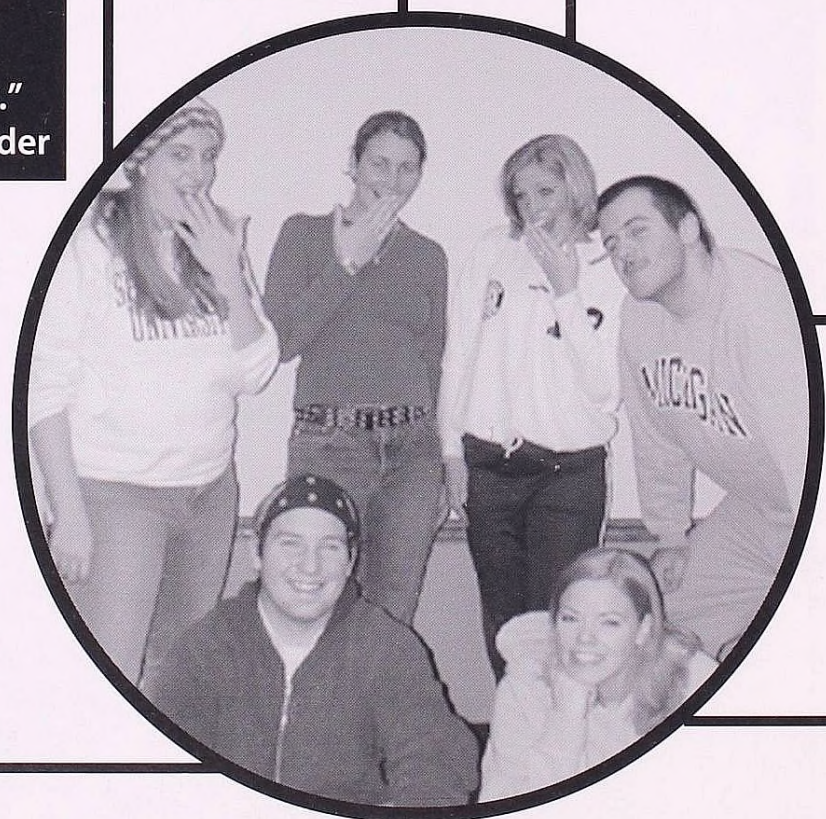

"My favorite memory would be any time with my core group. We are like a family and we have the most fun doing anything. Spending time with them at Cedar Bend was a blast and I wouldn't have wanted to have that experience with any other group." - Staci Miracle

"My funniest and probably most embarrassing experience at SAU has happened three times. Three times I've been in the shower and suddenly the curtain fell down. Of course, there were always people right there. After it happened a bunch of Alpha 2 girls invested in new shower curtains."

- Audra Leader

"The many late night girls' nights on Muffitt 4, talking about everything and anything and building life-long friendships with my best friends is something I am going to cherish all my life." - Ali Padrutt

"I came to Spring Arbor University for all the wrong reasons. But I found the only reason I should have while attending here. I have been searching for God a good part of my life and here I found him again. Seek him out and he will answer you." - Eric Rossman

"I woke up one morning and my alarm clock was going off. I lifted my head and moved to turn off the alarm...and ran right into the wall."

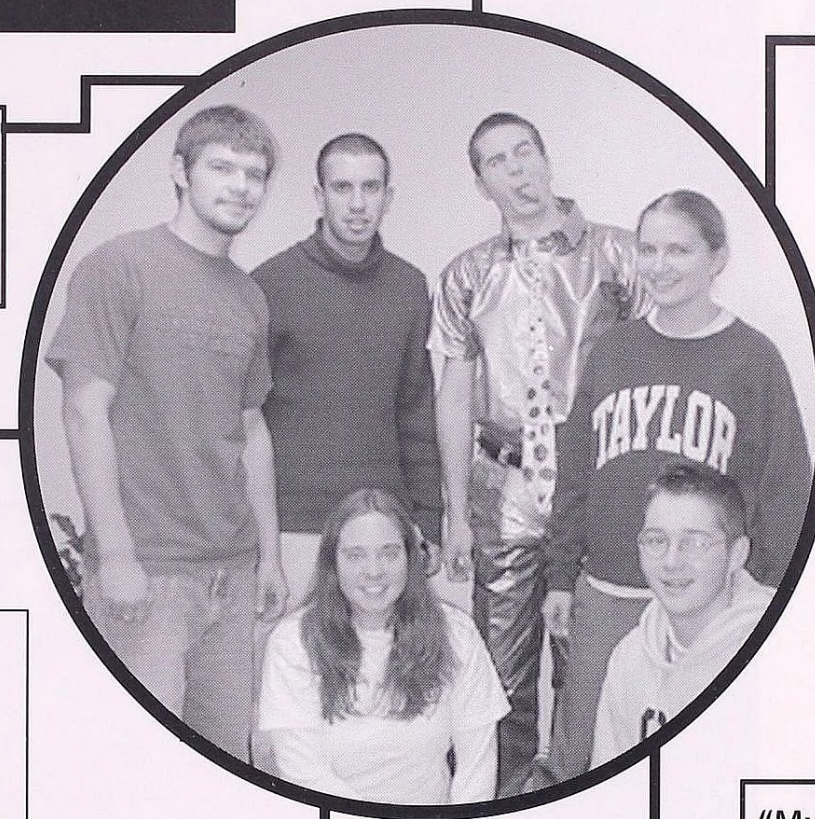

- Clay Lajoie

"I'll remember how hospitable everyone was on move-in day. I was shocked when I had people to unpack my car and rearrange the furniture for me. I wasn't expecting it at all" - Stacy VanTil

"I used to sleep ... But I forgot how." - Jonathan Wagner

"Once, I went to the DC, and the food was good." - Josh Angel

"So far I have slept though Psych 101 three times." - Nathan Hoard

"I threw a tennis ball at Jeff Baker when he was on the toilet and the ball went into the toilet by accident. Jeff thought it would be a good idea to flush the ball down the toilet, and he clogged the toilet." - Jonathan Johansen

"Spring Arbor University has been more than I ever imagined. SAU has been a great experience. I have learned so much about the people around me and myself." - Aubrie Wooden.

"I don't think I'll ever forget all of the blue shirts on move in day." - Bethany Yardy

"My PA, Dave Knight, was asked if we needed to bring toilet paper to Cedar Bend. His response was 'Depends.' One of the kids in my core group said 'Really, we need to use those.'" - Craig Cyphers
