There once was a man who loved people. Such was his love for people that he dedicated his entire life to the education of those people. That man is Richard F. Gottier, Dean of Academic Affairs at Spring Arbor College.

Much can be said about great men, but words always fail to express the true worth of such men. Therefore, the 1970-71 ECHO staff proudly dedicates this yearbook to one of the great men in our lives: Dr. Richard F. Gottier.

So many gods, so many creeds —
So many paths that wind and wind
While just the art of being kind
Is all the sad world needs.

DEDICATION

Dr. Richard F. Gottier

LIFE IN ITS DIVERSITY

Places we have been
Things we have seen
Sounds we have heard
People we have met
We cling to the fading
memories of things past

Life is the game that must be played:
This truth at least, good friends,
we know;

So live and laugh, nor be dismayed
as one by one the phantoms go.
Edwin Arlington Robinson

Silhouetted
Against a cold, gray wall,
She lingers
The vision is so plain;
A person without a name.
She is lost and alone,
and forms the shadow
on the gray colored stone.

Each is an individual expressing himself in his own way

The study of life
is an adventure
into people.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of a hard working core of officers, the 1970-71 Student Council provided the Associated Students with a powerful voice. The students of Spring Arbor College were represented in their interests by capable personnel. Some of the major accomplishments of this group were: a more liberalized hours policy, direct student control of the constitution, a thorough revision of the old constitution, and a number of student services. The 1970-71 year brought a significant improvement in the rights of the students of Spring Arbor College.

ULTIMATE CONCERNS

The God revealed in Jesus Christ touches every aspect of life. This fact we must recognize and these pages proclaim. What you see are people photographed in separate moments of time. It is within these moments that a spirit of The Eternal reflects itself in man. These moments exist twenty-four hours a day and find life to be an exciting experience. Ultimate Concerns are those things existing in temporal form which give meaning, direction, ambition, goals, joy, results, and hope to man. Because every man possesses a unique personality, Ultimate Concerns may vary, however, there is a continuity even amongst the variations. In viewing these pages, we must ask "What does this have to do with Christ?" and not be too quick to forget that this is life and He touches every aspect of it.

SLOW ME DOWN, LORD
*Slow me down, Lord
Ease the pounding of my heart by the quieting of my mind.
Steady my hurried pace with a vision of the eternal reach of time.
Give me, amid the confusion of the day, the calmness of the everlasting hills.
Break the tensions of my nerves and muscles with the soothing music of the singing streams that live in my memory.
Help me to know the magical, restoring power of sleep.
Teach me the art of taking minute-vacations — of slowing down to look at a flower, to chat with a friend, to pat a dog, to read a few lines from a good book.
Slow me down, Lord, and inspire me to send my roots deep into the soil of life's enduring values that I may grow toward the stars
of my greater destiny.*

IS THE CHURCH A DYING INSTITUTION?

The Spring Arbor Concept has committed the faculty and students to an active and meaningful participation in the contemporary world. In accordance with this concept, Mid-Year Seminar 1971 was concerned with a study of the Christian Church in Contemporary Society. Questions such as Is the Church relevant to modern man? Should the Church take stands on such issues as race, war and ecology? and How can we as concerned faculty and students help to improve the Church were raised by many. Opinions and ideas were presented and discussed and many persons thought of ways to improve their own churches.

The final outcome of the seminar is yet to be seen. The outlook for the Church is good if the actions taken equal the ideas vocalized. A lot of talk and no action will benefit no one. There are changes that can and should be made. It is the responsibility of each Christian to help make needed changes in his own church.

If the organized Church is to survive, it must become meaningful and active and not hide behind its thick doors and stained-glass windows.

"where are the real people ...?"

"without money the church can't survive ..."

"we'll never get it all together again ..."

WHAT ARE WE TALKING ABOUT?

"it's simply this: unless the church changes, it's DEAD!"

"what do we really mean by the term, Church?"

"what can I do ...?"

A Cappella Choir, under the directing hand of Professor Hubert Wash, provides music not only for the college community but also for the many people listening to the choir on its annual Spring tour which this year took them to New York and into Canada. Hard Work, excellent musicianship, belief in the words of sacred music and the laughter during practice sessions make the choir the quality organization it is.

ORCHESTRA

This year is the first time that the orchestra has been organized separately from the A Cappella Choir. Under the leadership of Mr. Kenniston Bauman, who has done an excellent job of organizing the group separate from the choir, they put on fall, winter and spring concerts. The orchestra is looking forward to next year's even further extended program.

SOCCER 1970

The 1970 Cougar soccer team could be labeled the team of surprises. The outlook for the season looked very dim for first year coach Gary White in early September. Coach McCrath and a few very talented men from last year's fourth place national finishers were gone. Many people were ready to accept a few defeats and use the faithful cry, "Wait 'til next year." The Cougar booters, however, were not ready to play dead for anyone. Spirit was high for early season drills but the pattern looked set after SAC suffered two defeats in its first two games. It could be expected that the morale might drop, but the team of surprises surprised everyone by winning their next twelve games in a row before being tied at Homecoming by a strong Wheaton team. The team that was supposed to be down was a surprise entry in the national play-offs.

Many players contributed to the rise of the booters, but a strong defense led by Bob White, Steve Friebel and Rich Wilson kept enemy shots at a minimum on all-star goalie Jim Pike. The offense led by Bob Imhoff, who broke the school record for season goals with 31, was also superb. Helping Imhoff fill the nets were Barry Jackson, Lloyd Stonehouse, Bob Best, Dave Redfield and Bill Schofield. A surprise to the team was the play of freshman Bryan Jackson, Barry's brother. All in all, the team of surprises looks for more surprises next year.

The Cougars can also be proud to say that two All-American candidates played for the 1970 team. Bob Imhoff and Bob White were prime candidates. Imhoff was second in the nation in goal scoring with 31 goals and placed tenth in overall points with 44. It is evident that Coach White, who did a great job in filling a big pair of shoes left by Coach McCrath, can look forward to another surprise next year.

Spring Arbor College enjoyed one of its most successful seasons ever during the 1970-71 year. The runners of Coach Ted Comden were winners in seven out of eight dual meets and were also winners at the Adrian and Grand Valley Invationals. With Captain Chuck Sprang being the only senior on the squad, SAC can look forward to another successful season next year.

Balance is once again the word to describe the 1970 Cougar Harriers. The team was paced by Terry Valentine and Gary Miller through-out most of the season. Denny Valentine, Craig Hayward, Frank Dusett, Chuck and Tom Sprang were the main body of the outfit and provided the depth that brought the Cougars many a victory in their campaign. John Meygeri, who was injured midway through the season, also added strength to the team.

School spirit is more than just two words. The cheerleaders at SAC know this to be a fact. The girls have worked very hard this past year and their performances at the soccer and basketball games showed this. Many new routines were added to their act. The trampoline and acrobatic work of the cheerleaders was outstanding. With the girls leading the cheers, our teams mauled many an opponent. Not enough credit can be given to the SAC cheerleaders and their advisor Miss Sue Carlton.

"Puke"

The Spring Arbor cage fortunes for the 1970-71 season lacked some of the brighter expectations that were intended when the season first began. The Cougars struggled about the .500 mark with several of their losses coming in the final minutes of play. This year's varsity ball club can be termed almost anything, but it was not one which lacked ability. Granted, it was tough to fill the shoes of such graduated veterans as Bobby Thompkins, Lynn Johnson and Gerald Byrd. Coach Burbridge's young team did, however, meet the challenge and did a sufficient job of handling it. Every player on the squad saw plenty of action with junior Jerry Neigh leading all scorers and placing in the Top Ten in the nation in scoring with a 30.2 P.P.G. average. Neigh, who gives viewers a protégé of Pistol Pete Maravich carried a lot of the 1970-71 cage fortunes on his shoulders. Jimmy Jones, Jeff "Buzz" Trautman, Jeff Hinkle and Joe Ginzer all did an adequate job with Jones leading the way in rebounds and Ginzer in field goal percentage and in free throw percentage. Joe Ginzer has displayed four years of consistent and brilliant basketball as a Spring Arbor Cager. Ginzer, Hinkle and Ingram will all graduate this June from the Spring Arbor Basketball ranks. Freshmen Nate Lake and Virgil Cecil added their support to the team and they will be returning along with this year's newcomers George Mitchell, Delbert Littlejohn and Leavel Holmes and veterans Jimmy Jones, Trautman and Neigh. One could be optimistic and say that next year's basketball outlook is good, but let's be sincere and say that with the combination of youth, experience and ability returning, the 1971-72 season should be nothing short of the winning season that Spring Arbor fans are accustomed to.

This season as a junior, Neigh erased all existing scoring records with an outburst of 52 big ones.

THIS IS "COUGAR COUNTRY"

A SIMPLE CHANT WITH A POWERFUL MES- SAGE

Coach Harry Hutt's freshman team was tagged as one with possibly the best potential of any past S. A. C. reserve cager teams. Fred Clark, the slick shooting guard of the Cubs, led most of the season in the scoring race. James Singleton, who reminded many fans of the recent basketball great Bobby Thompkins, paved the way under the boards and for his somewhat small size, showed remarkable jumping ability. Even though Coach Hutt's Cubs struggled to play .500 ball, the future seems bright for Spring Arbor Basketball, and with a little more playing time, the reserve players should reach their expected potential. In his first year, Dennis Garn coached our Cougar golf men through a season of finesse and success. Top men on the squad were (1)Bill Childs, (2)Greg Clevenger, (3)Dave Culp, and (4)Mike Helmer. Fifth man was a toss-up between Rob Eberle and Sam Rigglesman. With the final putt and score-card signed, we, the student body of S. A. C. say, thank-you.

Greg Clevenger drops one pin high.

COUGAR TRACK 1970

The Cougar track team showed the results of Coach Ted Comden's rebuilding job by placing strong in many large meets. Posting a winning dual season record, the Cougars were aided by the superhuman efforts of Paul Dersheid along with fine performances from Gary Miller, Terry Valentine, Lyn Cryderman, and Craig Hayward. The 1971 spring season was highlighted by a pleasing crop of freshman talent. All in all, the track prospects look bright for the Spring Arbor sports scene.

B A S E B A L L

Spring Arbor College has always had a fine reputation for being especially strong in baseball. The 1970 season certainly proved not to be an exception. Although the won and loss column did not total up as well as in other years, the Spring Arbor baseballers met the challenge and placed second in the state in the N. A. I. A. behind powerhouse Eastern Michigan.

The season began with the usual spring training trip to Florida. Playing just below .500 baseball in the South, the team owes much credit to the tremendous hitting of Phil Andrews. With one of the best outfielders in the state, the threesome of Andrews, Terry Robe, and Paul Hancock, all provided fans with some excellent fielding and hitting, along with added leadership qualities. Robe and Andrews shared MVP honors for the season. The infield was a young one with several freshmen seeing ample playing time. Freshman Chuck Stringham and Junior Steve Morrow shared catching duties, with Morrow doubling at the third sack and on the mound.

The pitching department might be termed as the only weakness of the '70 season. Duane Church and Larry Heuman both shared most of the pitching duties, but there was not much strength in the bullpen to back them up. The overall record for the 1970 season was a respectable 14-12.

With the loss of Andrews, Heuman, and Hancock, the '71 season could fall somewhat short of other baseball seasons at Spring Arbor. However, with the return of several veterans and with many experienced underclassmen returning, along with Coach Burbridge's tact for developing great players, the 1971 season should prove to be another fine one.

TENNIS TEAM OFFERS STIFF COMPETITION

Standing: Coach Carey, Greg Cooper, Steve Johnson, Bill Cooper. Kneeling: Doug Hawkins, Ken Galbreath, Dave White.

Coached by Charles Carey and led by the trio of Cooper, Smith and Cooper, the Cougar netters have proven themselves one of the most threatening teams in the state. With the aid of Dave White, Doug Blakely, Steve Johnson, Ken Galbreath and Doug Hawkins, to mention a few, the Cougars battled Ferris State, Eastern Michigan and nationally ranked Cedarville, giving each team some of the best in competition.

In the state tournaments, the Cougars revealed that size meant nothing. Outstanding performances were given by the fearsome trio of Cooper, Smith and Cooper. Rated fourth in the state, Bill Cooper advanced to the quarters where he was upset. Don Smith and Greg Cooper also advanced to the quarters capturing several points for the Cougars. Bill Cooper and Don Smith captured a third state ranking as they were finally defeated in an extremely exciting and hard fought three set semi-final match. When all was done, Spring Arbor had captured a ranking of fifth in the state, the first team to ever gain state ranking, a position which succeeded schools twice that of Spring Arbor.

This year's squad though still fresh, will offer Spring Arbor the most exciting year yet as it takes on the toughest competition in Spring Arbor history.

O HAPPY DAYS

And So It Is.
For This Time I Will Leave You.
Tomorrow,
If You Please To Speak With Me,
I Will Come Home To You;
Or If You Will,
Come Home To Me,
And I Will Wait For You.
Till Then,
Think Of The World.

(Shakespeare)

MAN-MAKING

We are all blind, until we see
That in the human plan
Nothing is worth the making if
It does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilt goes?
In vain we build the work, unless
The builder also grows.
